businesses and organizations to spur economic development and impact.

ALUMNI RELATIONS

Alumni Relations champions lifelong, supportive partnerships among TU and alumni to increase engagement, advancement, pride, and philanthropic commitment.

Steven Rosenfeld, Director, Alumni Communications & Recognition; _____

ATHLETICS

There are many ways to support and connect with student-athletes through the Tigers in the Community program and giving and membership options.

Lauren Hoskins, Assistant Athletic Director for Executive Operations; _____

BECOME A VENDOR

Procurement Services strives to promote competition in an open and fair environment and prioritizes buying from small, minority, and local businesses.

Chanel Franze, Manager of Business Inclusion and Supplier Diversity; _____

CERTIFICATION & TRAINING PROGRAMS

TU's Continuing & Professional Studies offers instructor-led and self-paced certification prep course to advance careers and works with businesses to develop customized programs.

Sharyn Grove, Director of Operations; _____

DATA ANALYSIS, GIS, & TECH SUPPORT

Tap into GIS data development and analysis, economic and policy analysis, and IT hosting services via the Division of Strategic Partnerships & Applied Research.

Daraius Irani, Vice President for Strategic Partnerships and Applied Research; _____

EVENT HOSTING

TU's Event & Conference Services works with outside partners to reserve facilities and manage on-campus events and conferences.

Scott Beyer, Director; _____

GRADUATE & UNDERGRADUATE ADMISSIONS

TU offers programs in flexible formats for busy professionals. The Towson Learning Network works with businesses and other organizations to deliver programs via cohort formats at off-campus and on-site locations.

Clare Muhoro, Associate Provost for Academic Affairs; _____

WANT TO WORK WITH TOWSON UNIVERSITY BUT NOT SURE HOW?

The Office of Partnerships & Outreach is here to help you navigate and connect the dots.

Reach out to _____ to get started.