

All undergraduate music majors and minors must bring the following documents to their advising meetings. If you do not come prepared for your advising session, your advisor reserves the right to refuse to meet with you during that time.

Services by logging on to your student center page (obtain this from Towson Online

