

After your hearing, depending on what the finding of responsibility is, you may be eligible for an appeal. Below is information on how to write and submit your appeal. This information can also be found at www.towson.edu/studentconduct.

Any disciplinary determination resulting in expulsion or suspension from the University, or removal from on campus housing may be appealed to the Student Appeals Committee.

Any disciplinary determination resulting in any lesser sanction except as provided below may be appeals to the vice president for Student Affairs or designee.

The basis for appeal of a disciplinary sanction must be one of the following:

- 1.